NEWSPAPER IS TRANSMITTED OVER RADIO

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 8.—An experimental radio facsimile station operated by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Wednesday inaugurated the world's first regular broadcast on ultra high frequency of specially prepared facsimile newspapers.

The first broadcast was made at 10:15 a.m. of Vol. 1 of the Post-Dispatch's first radio edition consisting of nine pages, each 10 inches long and four columns wide, using the newspaper's regular seven-point type. It takes 15 minutes to transmit the page.

The range of Station WXYZ, with 25,000 kilocycles, is from 20 to 30 miles. The broadcast will be continued daily and Sunday at 10 a.m., M.S.T.

At present, 15 receiving sets have been loaned to a number of members of the station's staff. The manufacturer, Radio Corporation of America, is within the next month to be able to supply receivers at a cost of about $250.

WHEAT BOOSTED BY EXPORT SALES

WINNIPEG, Dec. 8.—An export bureau of 300,000 bushels of Canadian wheat, together with strong unexpected export, lowered Winnipeg wheat prices. The market was boosted by the fact that the export bureau was sold in the west and gained was held back of the west.

Wheat prices were 1/4 higher at December 8, 1938, May 87 1/2 and December 87 1/2.

This Wee Pocohontas Jenny, Chipewyan Native, In Need of Cheer Pitiful Yuletide Picture

Her story is Jenny. From beneath that black hair one black eye shines brightly from a berry brown face. The other eye, has a bad hangover from it, or rather even the place where it used to be, for Jenny has only one eye now.

You see Jenny is a little thingy, an Indian girl, brought in the winter months, here about a month ago from Fort Chipewyan where a serious eye infection necessitated immediate medical attention. The attention, came later, and sympathizing eye specialists had to remove the eye.

She is now in the city, and is being looked after by the city authorities. She is a very pretty girl, and is being looked after by the city authorities. She is a very pretty girl, and is being looked after by the city authorities.

Dandelion? Oi! From Sunny Cardiff

In December

Cardiff, the sunniest town in South Wales, that's what it is. Dandelions are in the air, and the sun is shining. It is a very nice place to be in December.

TORONTO ARGOS DOMINATE EAST ALL-STAR SQUAD

Bummer Stirling Voted Best Griddler

Stirling Almost Unanimous Choice for First Team; Top-Heavy I.R.F.U. Provides Majority of Players

TORONTO, Dec. 8.—The Interprovincial Rugby Football Union, broken down to a top-heavy, two-team circuit, still provides the east with most of its outstanding players. More specifically, Toronto Argonauts provide them.

Argos, national champions and exponents of the "razz-dazzle" to the highest degree, may find added strength for defence of their title against Winnipeg Blue Bombers Saturday in their domination of the seventh annual all-easters team. They have been allotted five of the 12 places.

MAPLE LEAFS HOPE TO BEAT E.A.C. TONIGHT

Maple Leaf Athletic club has high hopes of turning in a winning performance against the Edmonton Athletic club in a scheduled junior hockey game at the Arena tonight. The game will end under way at 8:30 p.m.

These two teams have met only once before. The Leafs on this occasion came through with something of a surprise as they forced the E.A.C.'s into overtime before the latter team won 3-2. In this game the Leafs could have won the game in the last moments of the game, but failed to finish off possible goals.

Coach Lefty Grogan's lineup will probably be the same as the usual junior encounters with two of the "big" team's defense and one complete line with the other line being the "juvenile" trio of McGill, McKay and Simpson. E.A.C.'s are favored to win.

BOXING'S FINEST CAPE TOWN—Max Baer is the finest fighting machine Ben Ford ever seen up against, declared South Africa's native son, returning home after holding the British and Empire heavyweight boxing crown.

London's metropolitan police force consists of about 18,000 officers of all ranks.

MRS. ANNA GRESS

ATTENDED THE ANNUAL CANTON MEETINGS FOR 70 YEARS—EVERY YEAR OF HER LIFE.

THE GREATEST MAN-EATERS: The record of these two lions, known as the man-eaters of Tsavo, is the most remarkable in existence, according to no less an authority than President Theodore Roosevelt himself. When the British government commenced the construction of the Uganda Railway in 1896, the line got only as far as the town of Tsavo (Kenya) when it was halted by the depredations of two lions who carried off from their lairs and devoured a total of 135 laborers within a period of nine months. The construction was not resumed until J. H. Patterson of England finally slew the man-eaters, but in the meantime the prime minister of England acknowledged in parliament that two lions were powerful enough to halt the construction of a British railway.

Two lions halted the building of a railroad by killing 135 workmen.

United States' "Greatest" Woman Diver Begins Instructing

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—Georgia Coleman's health is back on the good standard and the lady-tailor, who dropped from the secure eminence of an Olympic diving champion-turned pro into the dismal status of a paralytic victim a year ago, is returning to her role of swimming and diving instructor here.

When a New York club sought her to take over the direction of its new aquatic department she decided she was fit enough for the job which starts next week.

The last year's chapter in the history of the United States greatest girl diver is more of a success story than the famous one that preceded it. She is the only girl who ever swept all United States and Olympic diving titles in one year (1935).

LONG STRUGGLE It took hard work through all the hours of seven months to bring Miss Coleman back from the ravages of a sequence of events that included overtraining with its cost to resistance, absence of the ears, exhibition diving while the car-cas was draining down through her system, then influenza, pneumonia and a paralysis of arms and legs.

From November, 1937, to June, 1938, the ex-Olympic star fought back. Yesterday she looked pleasantly fit and definitely on the happy side.

Papyrus Is Sold For Three Grand

LONDON, Dec. 8.—Papyrus, a famous camelopard on race tracks on both sides of the Atlantic since 19 years ago, was sold at Newmarket for 1750 (about $5,000) in a partnership distribution.

The 18-year-old horse has earned nearly £50,000 in stud fees since 1920, the year he won the Epsom Derby, and then went to the United States to lose to Zev. The purchase was by J. P. Hastings, who shared ownership with Major John Courtland.
